What's Goin' On?!

2001 was, indeed, a very interesting year. From the tragic events of September 11th to Britney Spears' infamous "snake-charming" at the 2001 MTV Video Music Awards, the year proved to be one that would not easily be forgotten. On campus, Artie Travis was the Dean, Aramark ruled with an iron fist, and there were no fees for parking. Those were the days...and I'm glad they are long gone!

What's Goin' On?!

The raw emotion that came as a result of the tragic events of the previous year were still very much alive as millions tried to regroup, heightened terror alerts made travel very difficult, people that "looked ethnic" became victims of constant harassment, and the world got its first glimpses of the celebutante Paris Hilton. 2002 wasn't a 365-day episode of severe depression. There were several moments, such as water fights in the Quad and Homecoming at The Fox Theater, that made the year enjoyable.

What's Goin' On?!

20

As Britney, Madonna, Christina, and Bennifer justified their love for millions of life-deprived Us Weekly subscribers, war raged in Iraq, the economy was starting to show some signs of recovery, and gas prices began to increase. Like magic, a rotund black man turned into white one as Tim Doyle took over Artie Travis' former post as Dean of Students. Gee, one could go on forever (not really) about all the interesting and exciting things that happened during the course of this year, but this will have to do.
